

Descendants of Robert Stanfield

Generation No. 1

1. ROBERT¹ STANFIELD¹ was born 11 Mar 1729, and died 1811 in Halifax County, Virginia. He married ELIZABETH LOWRY.

Notes for ROBERT STANFIELD:

The Stanfields are descended from the ancient Stanfield Family of Britain. The name is Norman and one of the oldest surnames. Yorkshire is the place where the name is first recorded in Britain. Their lands were granted to them by William, the Duke of Normandy for their distinguished service at the Battle of Hastings in 1066 A. D. The family is part of the Vikings who landed on the Orkney Islands and Northern Scotland in about 870 A. D. The name appears in the Domesday Book which is a census of most of England at that time.

There are around forty variations in the spelling of the Stanfield name: Stanfeld, Stansfield, Standfield, as well as Stanfield. Jordan Stansfield was the first Lord of Stansfield in the valley of Todmorden and was the son of Wyons Maryons. His son was John who was succeeded by Richard, then Edmund, Ralph, Henry, William, then Thomas in the 14th century. His grandson named Thomas acquired Heptonstall in 1508. Then his grandson acquired Sowerby in 1587.

When the migration began to America, the Stanfields were among them. There were several early Virginia Stanfields. Symon Stanfield was listed as immigrating to Virginia by Captain Adam Thoroughgood in 1635 possibly on the Jon & Dorothy, 1634. He was one of 105 persons who were brought in by the captain who received 5,350 acres in Princess Anne County for his efforts. Lawrence Stanfield was recorded as immigrating in 1646 by Elizabeth and Ratchell Robins in Northampton County. The majority of the early Stanfields in Virginia seem to have been located in Halifax County.

Generation No. 2

2. WILLIAM² STANFIELD (*ROBERT*¹) was born Bef. 1770 in Halifax County, Virginia, and died 1803 in Person County, North Carolina. He married ELIZABETH BEADLES 14 Dec 1789 in Virginia, daughter of JOSEPH BEADLES. She was born 1770 in Virginia³, and died 25 Nov 1857 in Henry County, Georgia.

Notes for WILLIAM STANFIELD:

We find the widow Elizabeth Stanfield in Oglethorpe County, Georgia in the 1820 Census. The first record of a Stanfield in that county was that of Benjamin Stanfield who signed as a witness to a land sale in 1799. The sale was proved in June 1801. The record is in Deed Book D, 1800-1806, Oglethorpe County, Georgia. There is an Estate File in the same county for a William Stanfield in 1826. There is a Richard Stanfield in Clarke County in the 1810 Tax Digest. There was a listing of a Samuel Stanfield on the accounts of George Vest, deceased in 1799.

Notes for ELIZABETH BEADLES:

A will by Joseph Beadles written on 2 november 1813 and recorded 9 February 1814 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia Will Book B leaves property to his son William, his grandson Joseph, a daughter Patsy Dillard, and a daughter Elizabeth Stanfield. He gave all his negroes to his son William: Frank, Sam, George, Ambrose, Rumsey, Daniel, Patrick, Larkin, Willy, Fellis, Pat, and Cynthia. William also got all the land, 262 acres, they were presently farming and various other household things. Joseph Beadles recieved a mare. The remainder of the property was sold at auction and Patsy got one-third and Elizabeth got two thirds of the money.

In the 1820 Census Elizabeth Stanfield is living in Lexington, Oglethorpe County, Georgia as head of the household.

On page 113 Oglethorpe County, Georgia, 9 March 1819, there is a document of Elizabeth Stanfield to make William B. Stanfield, both of said county, my lawful attorney, to sign my name to a note as security for George Lester to the balance of debt due to William Elkins as guardian for the orphans of James Garret, deceased, which debt is now in suit and to act in said case as I could. It was signed by Elizabeth Stanfield. Test: Joseph Stanfield, Faney (signed with an X) Steavens. Oglethorpe County power of Attorney proved by Joseph Stanfield who saw Faney Stevens witness, 9 March 1819. G. Hudspeth, J.I.C. Recorded 15 March 1819, Isaac Collier, clerk.

Joseph Stanfield later sued George Lester and Elizabeth Stanfield for a debt. The court found for the plaintiff five hundred and fifty dollars with interest and costs. John Felton was foreman.

On 31 December 1829, Henry County, Georgia Deed Book G Elizabeth bought 101&1/4 acres of lot #58 in District 3 for the sum of $500 from Lewis Hobgood. It was recorded on 19 July 1834.

In the 1830 Census she has 10 slaves and has one small female child living with her. Her son Joseph and his family is living nearby.

On October 12, 1834, Deed Book G page 196, Elizabeth Stanfield appointed her son William B. Stanfield as her lawful attorney.

The 1850 Census shows Elizabeth as 80 years old and that she was born in Virginia in 1770. She was living with C. Stanfield a female born in 1833 in Georgia. Her marriage bond was in Caswell County, North Carolina.

She moved there with her family from Halifax County, Virginia. She and William must have known each other in Virginia and he came to North Carolina to marry her. They lived in Virginia in the early years of their marriage since the 1850 Census gives Elizabeth's birth state as Virginia and of her two sons, Virginia as well. William B. was still alive for that census and Joseph's son stated his father was born in Virginia on a later Georgia census.

In Henry County Register of Sales, Book C, 1839-1858, there was a sale of the property of Elizabeth Stanfield, deceased, on 26 November 1857, by William B. Stanfield, administrator which was worth $803.67. Listed was livestock, saddle, running gear, household and kitchen furniture, provisions, bed clothes, 1 lot of cotton seed at 10 cents a bushel.

Generation No. 3

5. JOSEPH³ STANFIELD (WILLIAM², ROBERT¹) was born 1795 in Virginia. He married ELIZABETH REYNOLDS 16 Feb 1822 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia, daughter of JOSIAH REYNOLDS and ELIZABETH BARBER.

Notes for JOSEPH STANFIELD:

On 14 October 1833, Henry County Deed Book F, Joseph Stanfield gave William B. Stanfield $5 as payment on a promissory note made by William B. Stanfield and Elizabeth Stanfield for the sum of $600. Land in District 3, lot #75, 202 & 1/2 acres; a Negro woman named Mary, about 30 years old; and a Negro girl named Silvey, about 14 years old with dark complexion were the security. Witnesses were Francis Pearson and Jesse Johnson J.I.C. The note was recorded on the same day.

Henry County Deed Book G, recorded 14 April 1835, A ruling was made by the Superior Court of Henry County, John B. Reid against John W. Payner, Hiram M. Jackson and Joseph Stanfield in favor of Reid. The property of Joseph Stanfield was seized and sold at public outcry. George W. Reynolds was the highest bidder and the property was knocked off to him for the sum of $18. Witnesses were T. S. Crawford and James Love, Sheriff.

This author has not investigated the events leading up to the sale of Joseph's property. The Reynolds who bought his property was his wife's brother. George W. Reynolds is listed as one of Margaret Barber's grandsons. I suppose he bought the property to keep Joseph from losing it at auction. Joseph may have been living with his mother in 1840 since there is a female age 70 to 80 living with the family. Or he may have recovered the property and she was living with him. I did not search the location of the property. He is not found after the 1840 Census. His wife Elizabeth must have died between the census times also because she is not found either. There is a young child found living with the older Elizabeth Stanfield in the 1850 Census. I suspect that she is the youngest child of Joseph since his mother is probably the 70 to 80 year old female living with him in the 1840 Census. The fact that Abner is living next door to Elizabeth leads me to speculate that he is another of the children of Joseph.

I have also placed Martha in this family due to the records of the Lester Family.

Notes for ELIZABETH REYNOLDS:

Elizabeth's grandmother was Margaret Barber as we see by the giving of the slave girl Silvey to Elizabeth Stanfield her granddaughter. Later we see Joseph using this same slave as security on the note to his brother William and his wife Elizabeth.

The following is an extract of a will by Margaret Barber of Henry County, Georgia in Wills and Bonds which she signed on 13 October 1829.

I, Margaret Barber make this my last will and testament. To my beloved grandson, Josiah Reynolds, one Negro man named Mat and one Negro woman named Rhoda and her child, Margaret wife of Mat, and one Negro buy named Burton, also livestock and land. To my beloved granddaughter, Margaret Barber, daughter of my son Robert Barber, I give her one Negro girl, Sarah Ann. My son George, to his daughter Margaret Barber one Negro girl named Sinter. To grand daughter, Sarah Johnson, one Negro girl, Clara, To granddaughter Elizabeth Stanfield, one Negro girl, Sylva. To my grandson, George W. Reynolds, one Negro woman Tempy and her child, Rachel. To grandson Josiah Barber, one Negro boy Crawford. To grandson Wadkins Reynolds, one bed, furniture, and bay horse. Witness Murrell Brissin.

In Wills and Bonds of Henry County 1822-1834, page 194, Spenser Reynolds, G. W. Reynolds and Joseph Stanfield were bound for 7,000 dollars for the condition that Spenser Reynolds administer the goods, Chattles and credits of Jason Reynolds, deceased, to make a true and perfect inventory of his estate. This bond was recorded on 8 May 1833 in Henry County.

Henry County Deed Book H, recorded on 18 December 1837, was the sale of 150 acres on the west half of lot # 71, District 3 (Editors note: this is near the property Elizabeth Stanfield bought in 1829.) by James Cox of Muscogee County to Joseph Stanfield on 4 February 1832, for the sum of $750. Witnesses were James S. Fitner and Robert D. Wyche, J.P.

There are records of several Barbers in Lexington, Oglethorpe County, Georgia in the 1820 census: George, Jesse and Mathew. There is also a record of a Barber Reynolds in Texas in the 1880 Census who was born in Georgia and whose father was born in Virginia, although he wasn't found in the records of the family of Elizabeth Reynolds. Thanks to Margaret's will we have the names of her children and some of her grand-children.

In the Henry County Deed Book H there is another sale to William Stanfield. John L. Porter of Warren County sold to William B. Stanfield on 2 November 1837 202 & 1/2 acres, lot #223 for $250. The land was surveyed on 16 August 1821, by James Watson, surveyor and granted to the Said William B. Stanfield by John L. Porter on 2 November 1837. Witnesses were Andrew Henderson J.P., J. C. Notes for REBECCA CHICORA MOORE:

The alternate birth date is 16 Mar 1869. Thelma Adams said her mother told her that her mother's name was Chicora. They affectionately called her "Miss Chick." The name "Chicora" was used by the Indians for the area we know now as South Carolina. It was also used by the Spanish as a province in their explorations of America. The name is widely accepted as being of Native American origins. It was the name of a river (Cooper River) when the English first arrived in America. There was also a large plantation called "Chicora Wood" near Charleston, South Carolina. An early Irish immigrant named James Moore (in St. James Berkeley, South Carolina about 1685) had a son named John whose daughter married into the Allston family. They owned the plantation. We do not know if this Moore family was related to ours or not but it deserves further study.

Marriage Notes for JOSEPH STANFIELD and REBECCA MOORE:
They were married in the home of J. W. Moore, her father.

Notes for MARY BEULAH PEARL STALLING:

When I was a small child we used to go to see Miss Pearl. I suppose I saw her just before she died because I remember being held up to kiss her and she was in a bed with a white coverlet and lots of pillows. She had beckoned to my mother that I be held up to kiss her. I also remember being told that she was very sick. She was a nurse and was somehow addicted to prescription drugs. The family story is that she even took her husband's medicine.
