John Baptist Yarbrough died at his home in Semora January 7. He had just passed his 81st birthday, having been born January 6, 1841. He spent his entire life in Caswell County where he was born.

He entered military service as a member of the 13th North Carolina Regiment from the beginning of hostilities until discharged by virtue of his wounds suffered at Gettysburg.

In his business as contractor and builder, monuments to his ability are the Market House at Danville, VA, and the first dam built across the Dan River at that place.

Soon after leaving Confederate service, he married Mary Louise Harrison and to this union were born six children: Jesse W. Yarbrough of Danville; Mrs. Ella T. McAden of Semora; Louis T. Yarbrough of Raleigh; Mrs. Walter E. Taylor of Semora; Edgar C. Yarbrough of Charlotte; and the late Daniel H. Yarbrough of Commerce, TX.

Mr. Yarbrough served his day and generation in a number of ways. He was for many years until his death Superintendent of the Sunday School at Semora Baptist Church of which he was a member. He had been a county commissioner and Justice of the Peace for a long term of years.

Services were conducted by the Rev. J. T. Allen of Danville and the Rev. N. R. Claytor of Milton.

Peter H. Williamson of Reidsville died at his home on February 12, following a stroke of paralysis several weeks ago. He was 77 years of age and is survived by his widow and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Williamson was a native of Caswell County, located to Reidsville about 35 years ago and operated a large mercantile establishment. He was adjutant of Scales-Boyd Camp of Confederate Veterans.

During the war he was a lieutenant at the age of nineteen in the Home Guards of Caswell County. He was a constable during the famous "Kirk war" in Caswell County during Reconstruction days when the country was under martial law. On one occasion he served a warrant issued by a local magistrate on General Kirk in command of federal troops. Kirk was so enraged that tore up the warrant and had young Williamson arrested and put in jail. This was a few days after the hanging by unknown parties of "Chicken" Stephens. The Yanceyville jail was too small to hold the many prominent Caswell County citizens who had been arrested by Kirk's men and many of them were confined and guarded in the courthouse. Young Williamson was locked in the room in which Stephens had been killed.
